

Back To School in Hutto
Kim McAuliffe
Downtown Manager

August means back to school in Hutto! The first day of school is right around the corner and all of the downtown stores and restaurants are eager to help you with your shopping and dining needs.

Back to school shopping in downtown Hutto is a must. Unique clothing, accessories, and jewelry have arrived just in time for you to find exactly what you need to start the school year off right. There are many hippo and burnt orange items to choose from to help you show your school spirit. Don't forget about those special teachers that will be working with your child all year long, you'll find the perfect gift for them right in downtown! Not sure what they like? How about a gift certificate to one of the local restaurants or salons. Who doesn't love a slice of pie or a nice pampering session?

For those hectic mornings when you are running out the door, don't forget about breakfast! You can grab a quick breakfast to go or if you have time to spare, stop and sit a while at any of the great restaurants downtown. Then wind down and reward yourself for making it through another busy week by enjoying dinner and live entertainment right here in Hutto. You deserve it!

Looking ahead to the Fall? Mark your calendars for the Downtown Hutto Sunset Music Series every Friday in September. Concerts will be held on the north side of the Hutto Co-Op Gin. A different genre of music and food truck will be featured each week. Make sure to follow Downtown Hutto on Facebook for event updates.

Co-Op Market Nights will continue into November, so make sure to stop by each Wednesday to shop local with Hutto small businesses. Hutto Homecoming will be on September 30, and Henrietta will be sporting her spirit mum. Snap a selfie with her and post to the Downtown Hutto Facebook page for a prize!

Save the date for upcoming festivals: Hutto Olde Tyme Days on October 14-15, The Christmas Tree Lighting on December 3 and the Downtown Christmas Fair on December 10. There are plenty of activities scheduled for the remainder of 2016 to keep you busy and entertained in Hutto. We wish all of the students, teachers, and parents a great start to the new school year!

